

Resources to support home schooling:

OU resources to help transition to online teaching:

<http://www.open.ac.uk/blogs/classicalstudies/?p=1679>

Discovering Greek & Roman cities MOOC (free online course)

https://ou.edia.nl/courses/course-v1:AncientCities\_Project+DGRC+DGRC\_2020/about

Smart History (USA):

<https://smarthistory.org/>

<https://smarthistory.org/ancient-mediterranean/>

<https://smarthistory.org/arches-intro/>

MASSOLIT: <https://www.massolit.io/subjects/classics>

YouTube videos focusing on exam, coursework and dissertation skills, along with a series on Greek Tragedy: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4ymeas6JDo4>

British Museum online collections: <https://www.britishmuseum.org/>

Romans in Sussex: <https://romansinsussex.weebly.com/>

Gresham College: Classics lectures by Professor Edith Hall Especially good for 16-18 students, though might also suit some 14 or 15+:

<https://www.gresham.ac.uk/schools/classics>

Hands Up Education: Primary Latin Course (free online course):

<https://hands-up-education.org/primarylatin.html>

Hands Up Education also offer free access to the Activebooks (online textbook) to staff and students until summer: email contact@hands-up-education.org

Consulta Universitaria del Greco (CUG, Association of the Italian Academic Hellenists): a new Forum where a list of open-access resources (exceptionally available in this emergency situation) can be visited by scholars and students: (<http://www.sitocug.it/?p=2514>).

See also the list of Online Teaching Resources available via the CA website:

<https://classicalassociation.org/onlineteachingresourcesapril2020.pdf>

Last updated 31 March