

Classical Association Teaching Board

Online Resources for Teachers of Classics

[this page to be left blank]

Activity Village: Ancient Greece

Craft ideas, puzzles, games, colouring pages on Ancient Greek themes (primary level).

<https://www.activityvillage.co.uk/ancient-greece>

Ancient Rome Live

Short videos on topics related to Ancient Rome, including locations, monuments, daily life, rulers, entertainment venues etc.

<http://www.ancientromelive.org/daily-life-1/>

An Introduction to Ancient Greek Religion

Podcasts and an accompanying scheme of work which provide an introduction to some of the key rituals of Ancient Greek religion. Aimed at advanced KS2, and KS3 students.

<https://www.history.org.uk/secondary/module/8658/podcast-series-associated-scheme-of-work-an-int>

Ashmolean Latin Inscriptions Project

The Ashmolean Latin Inscriptions Project has produced a range of free education resources and activities, which can be used for teaching both Latin language and Roman Life topics to a range of age groups. Includes fact sheets, power-point slides, craft activities etc. with notes for teachers.

<http://latininscriptions.ashmus.ox.ac.uk/resources/>

<http://blogs.ashmolean.org/latininscriptions/>

Association for Latin Teaching (ArLT)

Holds annual teachers' refresher day and summer school, and runs annual Latin reading competition for schools. Provides private tutor listings, a Blog and message board, as well as links to the OCR exam board and providers of Latin teaching. Registration required for main teaching resources including JACT teaching notes, back issues of JCT (23-30), and HEA workshop/project files. Other online resources include audio files of GCSE and A-level set texts, reading lists and songs in Latin.

<http://www.arlt.co.uk/>

Attic Inscriptions Online

Open-access inscriptions of ancient Athens and Attica in English translation. Pdf available of paper discussing two important inscriptions specified for Ancient History A-Level (LACTOR 1 no. 78 and LACTOR 1 no. 138) in their historical context, as well as a general introduction to inscribed Athenian decrees.

<https://www.atticinscriptions.com/>

<https://www.atticinscriptions.com/papers/aio-papers-8/>

Barefaced Greek

Short subtitled films using excerpts from Ancient Greek drama in the original language, including The Watchman, Lysistrata, and Poseidon and Athena (with Agamemnon's Return coming soon).

<http://www.barefacedgreek.co.uk/>

British Museum

Resources to support sixth form visits to the BM to study the Roman imperial collections, including themes relevant to A-Level Ancient History and Classical Civilisation topics, gallery plans, teacher guidelines and bibliography, and an outline of the process of Romanization in Britain.

http://www.britishmuseum.org/learning/schools_and_teachers/resources.aspx

Cambridge Schools Classics Project

Provides CPD training for teachers of the Cambridge Latin Course, and KS4 Literature courses on GCSE set texts. 'Amici' scheme offers support and advice. Also developed 'Romans in Focus' and 'Classical Tales' (see below).

<https://www.teaching.cambridgescp.com/>

Classical Tales (developed by CSCP)

Free audio recordings on four topics (Aesop's Tales, Metamorphoses, War with Troy, Return from Troy) which can be adapted for different levels, with teachers' notes, images, and transcripts.

<http://classictales.educ.cam.ac.uk/>

Classics for All

Charity which raises funds and awards grants to support provision of Classics teaching in state primary and secondary schools. Involved in establishing regional Classics hubs to share expertise and develop new approaches. Online journal Ad Familiares publishes one article of classical interest each month. Provides links to Minimus Latin course for primary schools (see The Primary Latin Project below), as well as Maximum Classics and Mega Greek, which offer foundation Latin and Ancient Greek combined with aspects of Classical culture for pupils in Years 4-6. Also links to OU Latin and Greek courses, and a range of multi-media resources to support Classics teaching.

<https://classicsforall.org.uk/>

Classics in Communities

Partnership between the University of Oxford, the University of Cambridge, and the Iris Project, which promotes the teaching of Latin and Ancient Greek in UK state schools, and provides information and guidance on teaching approaches and methods, classroom resources, and support. Two new ranges of digital resources recently added to the website: 'How to get started with Latin' guides for primary and secondary teachers, and pedagogical videos on key topics in teaching Latin/Ancient Greek. Also provides links to other online teaching and learning resources.

<https://classicsincommunities.org/>

Classics Resources

A comprehensive list of resources for the study of the Ancient World, including collections of texts, images, maps, and ancient language teaching and learning resources.

<https://classicsresources.info/>

Classics Video Clips (University of Oxford)

A series of educational video clips including discussion of set texts and topics of more general interest.

<http://www.classics.ox.ac.uk/classics-video-clips.html>

EMACT Greek Certificate

East Midlands Association of Classical Teachers (EMACT) offers a certificate system for the introduction of Ancient Greek via a series of graded test booklets. Level 1E (Entry) for non-specialists can be taken with resources supplied in the booklets and is meant for interested time-strapped groups, whilst Levels 1S/2S/3S (Specialist) pre-suppose certain amounts of teaching time.

<https://emact.wordpress.com/emact-greek-certificate/>

Greek Drama for Schools (University of St Andrews)

A project producing podcasts and worksheets aimed at making the results of recent research on Greek drama accessible in a digested format geared to recent school syllabuses.

<https://www.st-andrews.ac.uk/classics/research/impact/greek-drama/>

Greek Myth Comix

Cartoon Odyssey (and some other classical resources) in printed form or downloadable, with varying costs and printing licences.

<http://greekmythcomix.com/category/epic/odyssey/>

Hands Up Education

A new site offering free teaching and learning resources to support Classics teaching in schools. Currently developing an online Latin course for primary schools.

<https://hands-up-education.org/>

Hay Levels

Very short YouTube clips for A-level students which includes some classical topics, such as Greek theatre, Antigone and Greek sanctuaries/animal sacrifice.

<https://www.youtube.com/user/HayLevels/playlists>

‘In Our Time’ podcasts

Shortcut to Radio 4 ‘In Our Time’ podcasts which are relevant to Classics, providing an introduction to a wide variety of topics (Greek and Roman history, philosophy, literature and more).

<https://keenerclassics.wordpress.com/2017/08/06/in-our-time-classics-podcasts/>

JSTOR

A digital library of more than 1,500 journals, books, and primary sources (free or paid membership allowing different levels of access). Useful for accessing Classics and Classics-related journal articles.

<http://www.jstor.org/>

LacusCurtius: Into the Roman World

Extensive site on Ancient Rome, including Latin and Greek texts and translations, a Latin Inscriptions site, the Roman Gazetteer (commented photo album of sites and monuments), and links to secondary works and subsites.

<http://penelope.uchicago.edu/Thayer/E/Roman/home.html>

Latin Resources for Schools (University of Nottingham)

Free downloads of extracts covering the selections from Cicero’s speech ‘Pro Milone’ on the current OCR AS and A-Level Latin syllabus, with each sentence showing grammatical structure, analysis of number and type of clauses, and description in terms of its contribution to the ongoing argument.

<http://nottingham.ac.uk/classics/about/outreach/latin-resources.aspx>

Latin Set Texts Commentaries (University of Cambridge)

Links to free online commentaries on Cicero, Tacitus and Virgil, useful for Latin students in Years 12 and 13.

<https://www.classics.cam.ac.uk/prospective/schools#section-9>

Literacy through Classics in the Primary Classroom (Swansea University)

Resources on ancient languages and cultures designed for primary school children, including primary Latin course for KS1 and KS2, Ancient Greek course for KS2, and resources on the Romans linked to KS2 History curriculum.

<http://literacythroughclassics.weebly.com/>

London Mithraeum

New cultural hub recently opened to the public, showcasing the ancient Roman temple of Mithras and over 600 Roman artefacts found during excavations. Free schools programme and teachers' resources pack designed for KS2.

<https://www.londonmithraeum.com/temple-of-mithras/>

Lucius' Romans (University of Kent)

Animated films about life in Ancient Rome, with accompanying blog on related topics and an annual animated script-writing competition for students in Years 7-13.

<https://blogs.kent.ac.uk/lucius-romans/>

MASSOLIT

Online courses comprising a series of lectures by established scholars (395 lectures across 64 courses in Classics and Ancient History). Ideal for use in the classroom and in students' own time (school subscription required).

<https://www.massolit.io/tags/Classics>

Museum of London

Pocket histories on life in Roman London and on Boudica, activity sheets and suggestions for discussion to use during KS1 and KS2 museum visits, plus 'Londinium' game based on Roman archaeology.

<https://www.museumoflondon.org.uk/schools/live-stream-registration>

Omnibus magazine (online catalogue issues 1-71)

Classics outreach magazine aimed primarily at pupils in their last two years at school, and their teachers. Includes a variety of short illustrated articles by leading scholars, plus details of annual translation and essay competition for school students. Articles from issues 1-71 now freely available to download via the Omnibus archive.

<https://archive.org/details/omnibuscatalogue>

OpenLearn (Open University)

Free online courses on Ancient Greek, Latin and the Classical World, plus videos, podcasts, timelines, interactive activities and articles suitable for all levels. Includes short animated films of The Iliad and The Odyssey, each with cast list and mini biography of characters, and animations of Lysistrata by Aristophanes and The Persians by Aeschylus (in translation).

<http://www.open.edu/openlearn/history-the-arts/all-content>

Open University

'Introducing Classical Latin' and 'Introducing Ancient Greek', including alphabet, sounds, basic vocabulary etc.

<http://www.open.ac.uk/Arts/introducing-classical-latin/>

<http://www.open.ac.uk/Arts/greek/index.html>

Romans in Focus (developed by CSCP)

A series of 8 short videos about different aspects of life in the Roman Empire.

<https://www.romansinfoocus.com/>

Starting to Teach Latin

Links to articles and blogs about teaching Latin and other classical subjects, information about UK teacher training programmes, and links to journals on the teaching of classical languages, literature and civilisation.

<https://startingtoteachlatin.org/>

Teaching Classical Languages

US-based online journal concerned with the teaching and learning of Greek and Latin. Includes links to teaching resources including the Audio-Visual Classics Database and 'Ariadne: Resources for Athenaze'.

<http://tcl.camws.org/links.php>

TES Connect

Teaching resources on Ancient History, Greek and Latin for use in early years, primary and secondary classrooms, including wall cards, storyboards, games, handouts and worksheets.

<https://www.tes.com/teaching-resources>

The Classical Resource Centre

A wide variety of resources for teachers and students including texts, audio, games etc.

<http://www.classicalresourcecentre.com/>

The Classics Library

Forum for Classics teachers and academics which promotes events, advertises job vacancies, and provides a network for advice and support. Teachers can register to access thousands of teaching resources. Also provides links to The Classical Anthology and OBP commentaries on four classical texts prescribed for study at A-Level.

<http://www.theclassicslibrary.com/>

The Iris Project

Educational charity established to introduce the languages and cultures of the Ancient World to UK state schools. 'Literacy through Latin' uses storytelling, games and activities to introduce basic Latin grammar and to demonstrate Latin/English connections. Online resources include worksheets, games, scripts and lesson plans.

<http://irisproject.org.uk/index.php/resources>

The Journal of Classics Teaching

The leading journal for Classics teachers in the primary, secondary and tertiary sectors. Includes articles, reports and short book reviews. Issue 31 onwards available online and open access via Cambridge Core. Issues 23-30 available to download via the ArLT website (see above).

<https://www.cambridge.org/core/journals/journal-of-classics-teaching>

The Latin Library

Extensive collection of Latin texts submitted by contributors from around the world (no translations).

<http://www.thelatinlibrary.com/>

The Latin Quarter

Runs short courses in Latin and the history of Ancient Greece and Rome. Online resources include a Guide to Latin Pronunciation, an Introduction to Latin Verse, recordings of passages read in Latin and links to short films in Latin with accompanying worksheets/scripts/translations.

<http://www.lingua.co.uk/latin/index.php>

The Panoply Vase Animations Project

Animations based on original Greek vases, organised into topics (women, myth, warfare, sport etc.). Useful for various teaching and learning activities, particularly in sessions on classical civilisation, art, and creative writing.

<http://www.panoply.org.uk/uses.html#.WfH88tenFaQ>

The Perseus Project

Tufts University's digital library project of humanities resources, including primary and secondary resources for the study of Ancient Greece and Rome, and catalogue of art and archaeology artefacts.

<http://www.perseus.tufts.edu/hopper/>

The Primary Latin Project

Minimus, Starting out in Latin introduces 7-10 year-olds to Latin language and Roman Britain through comic strips, stories and myths. Minimus Secundus, Moving on in Latin continues the course up to age 13. Online resources include support sheets, schemes of work, worksheets and ideas for practical activities. Audio recordings of stories and myths from the Minimus books are also available via Sound Cloud.

<http://www.minimus.com/>

<https://soundcloud.com/user-231577026>

The Trojan War Podcast

The Trojan War epic broken down into 20 episodes accompanied by short commentaries. The 'Archives' section allows a search for specific topics which will direct the listener to the relevant episode.

<http://trojanwarpodcast.com/about-trojan-war-the-podcast/>

Twinkl: Romans

Search 'Romans' for a wide variety of resources for KS1 to KS4, including display packs, reading comprehension activities, fact files, differentiated lesson packs, games and activity sheets.

<http://www.twinkl.co.uk/search>

Classical Association
December 2017
(updated March 2018)