THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION FINANCE COMMITTEE:
Terms of Reference

1. The Finance Committee is a committee of the Council of the Association, charged with responsibility for advising Council on matters of financial policy.

2. The Committee shall be empowered to take such decisions as may be delegated to it by Council.

3. The Committee shall meet at least once a year, and shall annually, with reference to documentation supplied for the purpose by the Honorary Treasurer:
   (a) review the Association’s financial position, and
   (b) set prices for the Association’s journals and editorial honoraria.

4. Membership of the Committee shall be as follows:
   The Chair of Council, ex officio (as Chair) the Honorary Treasurer, ex officio the Honorary Secretary to Council, ex officio the Chair of the Classical Association Journals Board, ex officio, two ordinary members of Council, whether elected or co-opted, who are not also members of the Classical Association Journals Board; these shall be appointed by Council and, once appointed, shall ordinarily serve for the duration of the remainder of their term of membership of Council.

5. The Secretary to the Association shall be in attendance at meetings of the Committee.

6. The Auditors, and representatives of the publisher of the Association’s journals, shall be invited to attend relevant meetings of the Committee.
