

Online CA 2021: a participation event focusing on key issues facing classicists, including inclusivity, employability and the performance of classical texts in the online world

	Tuesday 6 April	Wednesday 7 April	Thursday 8 April
From 11am – 12.30pm	Inclusive Classics and pedagogy: teachers, academics, and students in conversation Chairs: Petsalis-Diomidis, A. and Goff, B. A panel of six discussing their practice of inclusive teaching - follow up to the Towards a More Inclusive Classics Workshop held 25-26 June 2020.	1.30pm - CA AGM Chair: Prof. Douglas Cairns	Developing Classics in the local community: CA Branches in 2021 Chair: Katrina Kelly (Lytham St Annes CA) Dr Richard Cole (Bristol CA) Stephen Clifford (North Staffordshire CA) Dr Rosanna Omitowoju (Cambridge CA) Dr Syrithe Pugh (Aberdeen and North Scotland CA) A show and tell with ideas and inspiration for making regional branches thrive and grow.
From 2pm- 3.30pm	Accessing Classical Civilisation and Ancient History in Britain, past and present perspectives (under the auspices of ACE) Chair: Hall, E. Hall, E. Historical Overview Stead, H. Adult Education & Mass Market Publications in the Long 19th Century Holmes-Henderson, A. Who has Access to Classics in Schools Today? Wright, P. Classics and Blackpool A re-imagining of the ACE panel designed for Swansea CA2021.	Presidential address By Mari Williams CA Prize and Teaching Awards Presented by Natalie Haynes CA2022 Swansea preview (20- 23 April 2022) Maria-Elpiniki Oikonomou and Dr Ian Goh	Classics in the marketplace: being a Classicist in public Chair: Gloyn, L. Panel speakers: Draycott, J.; Gloyn, L.; Musié, M.; Morley, N. An opportunity for PhD students and ECRs to think through how to shape a public profile for themselves that lets them connect to colleagues and promote their work, whilst creating a comfortable space for doing so.
From 7pm – 8.30pm		Greek theatre night Introduced by Prof. James Robson (CA Hon. Secretary). Excerpts with Q&A at the end. By Jove Theatre Company Paul O'Mahony/Out of Chaos including announcing winners of its online Greek Tragedy competition Barefaced Greek/Helen Eastman	