

Sonita Alleyne is the first female Master of Jesus College Cambridge and the co-founder and former CEO of the production company Somethin' Else, which she established just a few years after graduating from Cambridge University with a degree in philosophy. She is a Fellow of the Royal Society of the Arts and the Radio Academy and in 2004, she was awarded an OBE for services to broadcasting. Sonita served on the BBC Trust from 2012-2017 and she is currently a Governor at the Museum of London and a Non-Executive Director of the London Legacy Development Corporation. She is also on the Board of the Cultural Capital Fund and was included in the 2020 and 2021 Powerlist, an annual publication listing the 100 most influential Black Britons.